

Luke 14: 7 - 14

7Then Jesus noticed that some of the guests were choosing the best places to sit. So Jesus told this story: 8“When someone invites you to a wedding feast, don’t take the most important seat. The host may have invited someone more important than you. 9And if you are sitting in the most important seat, the host will come to you and say, ‘Give this man your seat.’ Then you will begin to move down to the last place. And you will be very embarrassed. 10So when you are invited, go sit in a seat that is not important. Then the host will come to you and say, ‘Friend, move up here to a more important place!’ Then all the other guests will respect you. 11Everyone who makes himself great will be made humble. But the person who makes himself humble will be made great.”

12Then Jesus said to the man who had invited him, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, don’t invite only your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. At another time they will invite you to eat with them. Then you will have your reward. 13Instead, when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind. 14Then you will be blessed, because they cannot pay you back. They have nothing. But you will be rewarded when the good people rise from death.”

Luke 14:7-11

Jesus said that when you go to a party and you get to choose where you want to sit then you should not go and sit in the best or most important seat. Because if you sit in the best place and someone who is more important than you comes then you might have to shift places. But if you let others sit in the best seats then the best might rather and move you to an important seat while everyone is watching.
