Directions: God has given us free will to love Him. However, as stewards of our gifts and His creation, sometimes we are like Adam and Eve and decide not to respond to God with love. Use the graphic organizer below to reflect on a time you used your free will to love God and a time that you did not.

Individual gift or talent God has given you	How God wants you to use it	Describe a time you chose to use this gift to love God	Describe a time you chose not to use this gift to love God
