Directions: Jacob has spent many years away from his home; he is married and has many children of his own. However, he wishes to travel home, but Esau is still there. Read the following passages about Jacob's return.

| Genesis 32:1-6  |  |
|---|--|
| Why is Jacob afraid of Esau?                          |  |
| Do you think Jacob regrets betraying his brother now? |  |

| Genesis 33:1-11                                 |  |
|---|--|
| How does Esau greet Jacob?                      |  |
| How do Jacob and Esau heal their broken family? |  |
