

Luke 19: 1-10

1. As a tax collector, Zacchaeus has centered his life around the lower levels of happiness. Where do you see evidence of lautus and felix in this passage?
2. In the previous unit, we discussed the importance of relationships in our human development. Who helps Zacchaeus realize that he can experience happiness at a deeper level? What is it about this relationship that sparked this shift?
3. Is there evidence that Zacchaeus has committed to serving others? According to Jesus, what impact is this service going to have on Zacchaeus' long-term happiness?
