

Name: _____

Directions: Extract the object, intent, and circumstance to determine the severity of the immoral actions below.

Moral Action →	Lori walks into a store. She sees a shade of lip gloss that she likes but has no money, so she puts it in her pocket and walks out of the store without paying for it.	Lori walks into a store with her little sister, who looks up to her and tries to be like her. Lori sees a shade of lip gloss that she likes but has no money, so she puts it in her pocket. Her sister says, "Lori, that's stealing!" Lori responds, "It's just lip gloss. This store makes lots of money anyway, and I'm worth it." Her sister takes a tube of lip gloss and puts it in her pocket. "I'm worth it too," she says.	Lori walks into a store. She sees a bottle of Tylenol, which her little brother needs because he has a fever. She realizes she does not have enough money for it, but she does not want to walk all the way back home. So, she puts it in her pocket and walks out of the store without paying.
Object	Takes lip gloss	Takes lip gloss	Takes Tylenol
Intent	To look pretty / to gratify her desires	To look pretty / to gratify her desires	To help her brother Not to walk home
Circumstance	She has no money	She has no money Her sister witnesses it Her sister looks up to her	She doesn't have enough money with her Her brother is sick
Rank actions from 1 - 3 (worst to best)	2	1	3

8.3.2.8.ET

Why is it important to grow in moral reasoning? Who or what can help us do this?

---

---

---